Strutt Family.

The Family of Benjn Strutt.

The Ceremony of Marriage between Benjamin Strutt and Caroline Pollett, was performed by the Revd M. Sandiford at Christ Church, London, on Wedensday the 3d November 1779.

Had Issue, viz:

1. Henry Pawlet Strutt Nat. Tuesday 12 Septr. 1780 a 5 h. 15 Min. p.m. in the Parish of All Saints, Colchester. Obit. 5th December 1780. Buried in All Saints Church Yard. Found dead in his Craddle.
2. Edward Hugh Pawlet Strutt Nat. Sunday 9th Septr. 1781 at H. p.m. in the same parish. Baptized there 31st Octr. 1782. Mrs. Clara Reeve of Ipswich his Sponsor. Married November 1st 1827, Sarah Tunmer, widow of the same place, Colchester.
3. Caroline Pawlet Strutt Nat. Saturday 5th October 1782 at 5 p.m. in All Saints Parish. Baptized there 31st October 1782. Sponsors Mr Crawford of Cheswick Manor House & Mrs Pollett, Widow, of St Peters Parish, Colchester. Caroline Pawlet Strutt, deceased. Buried in Layer Marney Church, by the side of her Mother. Died Unmarried.
4. Jacob George Strutt Nat. Wedensday 4th August 1784, at 2 m. p. 5 in the same parish. Baptized also in the said parish. His Sponsor Mr Mills of the Bank, Colchester, Essex. Formerly Ensign and Surgeon in the North Lincoln Militia, under Captain Stephen's Command.

Jacob George Strutt, Married Mrs Elizabeth Biron, Widow of Hull in Yorkshire. Has Issue liveing 1st Charles Edward Strutt, 2nd Arthur Strutt, 3rd Agnes [Alice written over in pencil] Strutt, 3rd A Daughter [Alice in pencil] who Died about July 24th 1818 in Childhood.

5. A Child Born 6 Janry 1786.
6. Rachel Ann Strutt Nat. 4 March 1787 at 5 m. after 12 A.m. in the same parish. Baptised there 1789. Deceased lays Interred in St James Church Yard, Colchester, Essex. Died Unmarried. Her Sponsor was Mary Rachel Crane, a Daughter of Mrs Pollett of Colchester, and Wife of Captain Robert Crane who Served under Marquis Cornwallis, in the first American War.
7. Nicholas Strutt Nat. Saturday 23d May 1789 at 20 m. p. M. in the same Parish. N.B. a most tremendious Aurora Borealis † at 11. Obit in his Infancy 23d of May. This Child I am told was the very Image of my Father, in Features. His Sponsor was the Revd Nicholas Corsellis of Wivenhoe Hall, County of Essex. Buried in All Saints Church, Colchester, Essex In May 1789. Nicholas died 23d of May, or 11th of Septr. 1789. Nicholas Died of Convulsions.
8. Sarah Strutt Nat. Saturday 9th Augt. 4.10 A.M. in the same Parish 1794. Liveing at present at Hammersmith, Hammersmith House. Her Sponsor named her after her own Name, Sarah Sharpe Strutt.

† Northern Lights or Aurora Borealis was first seen in England an. 1715.

Note. Miss Sharpe, previous to her Decease left my Sister 100 Pounds in her Will, and some Rascal of a Fellow erased the last Cypher, whereby she could only enjoy the Interest of 10 Pounds a Year. We think it was one of the Pollet Family. Be it who it may, it proves what my Father said to be certainly true; "there are people in the World who would wade up to their Knees in Blood, for the value of a Silver Trinket, I would kick them all to the bottom of the Sea before I would betray such a Disposition."

Edwd. P. Strutt

Family of Strutt on my Grandfather's Side.

A Genealogy partly drawn out by me (E. Strutt) in the West of Sussex 1822, with additions from my M.S. in Essex 1828.

My Grandfather John Strutt of Codenham, in the County of Suffolk, Schoolmaster, married Mary Gibbs, whose Mother was a Daughter of Dr Byfield of London (hence our Relationship to the Gibbs's). They had Issue:

1. Sarah Charlotte Strutt (now liveing) Spinster.
2. Sophia Strutt married to William Eastwick Levett, who went in the army, and died abroad. Thought to have been Slain in Battle. By him she hath Issue, viz:
    1. Sophia Levett, married Mr Murphy, by whom she has a Family.
    2. Lucy Levett at present Unmarried.
    3. Charlotte Levett.
    4. Nelson Trafalgar Levett, so Christened in honour of Lord Nelson's Victory at Trafalgar.
3. Susan Strutt. She died in the prime of Youth and Beauty. Much lamented by all who had the pleasure of knowing her pleasing mental qualifications.

Tho' born to win the Heart, & charm the Mind
The lovely Ruin's here is left behind;
Yet from the precincts of this mouldering Tomb
Her Soul ascends to meet a Joyful Doom:
Her Voice below did move the Heart to love;
Now more sublime has join'd the Choir above
In Regions of Eternal Bliss to share,
Unfadeing Joys, and see her Saviour there.

E. Strutt

Her Picture was drawn by my Father, Benjamin Strutt, but not being satisfied with it, he tore it to pieces, and the Face, falling on the Ground, my Aunt Sarah Charlotte Strutt, picked it up, and preserved it as a precious Relic, the Features she told me was like her Sisters; but after keeping it some time she lost it. The Head of Niobe will give such persons, as never saw Susan Strutt, an Idea of the regularity & beauty of her Features, which was only equalled by the sweetness of her Temper and Voice.

This Flower of the Female Flock, by imprudently drinking too much Milk, makeing it her constant Beverage, contaminated the whole Mass of Blood, to the inexpressible Grief of her Parents, Family, Relations & Friends.

On her Picture.

Forbear, the mimick Skill's employ'd in vain
Her Features, unfadeing Colours to retain;
Th' Attempt is lost, and Art will not restore
The happy Spirit which once reach'd the Shore
Has no desire to visit Earth again;
The Vale thats mark'd with Sorrow, Sin, & pain;
Her Memory cherish; let that prove doubly dear
O'er that, lets drop the sympathetic Tear;
Through Christ, behold the Christians splendid prize
Secur'd for us, in his Imperial Skies.

E. Strutt, 1828.

Colchester, Essex.

1. John Strutt. Born Saturday 10th Feby 1753, between 7 & 8 O'Clock in the Evening at Great Clacton. He kept a School, but left it, and went in the Army, into foreign Service. But what became of him is very uncertain as accounts differ.

The following Memorandum is from my Fathers Hand Writeing: "The only account I can get of my Brother John, who went to India in 1784, is from converseing with a Soldier, lately returned from India, who described him by his Stature, Complexion, & remarkable Hair. That at Wallahjabad (it was pronounced to me as Woollahdabad) being with the Officers at play, at some Game, he received a Blow on the Side, under the Effect of which he languished 3 Months, and then Expired. He had Built himself a House in the Country, and had lived with a Porteguse Woman some Months before this happened. Which from hence he left her, & paid us a Month. He had no Children."

He was very Handsome, a fine Florid Complexion, and his Hair of so Beautiful an Auburn, that his Beard appeared like Gold Dust; much such looking Hair as King Edward 4th appeared when his Coffin was opened, and of which Hair Mrs Elizabeth Strutt, my Sister in Law, has a small Lock, formerly in the possession of Mr Walker, an intimate Friend of my Fathers, deceased.

2. Benjamin Strutt. Born on Monday Decr 9th 1754, bet. 4 & 5 O'Clock in the Afternoon, at Great Claxton.

Extract from the Hull Advertiser & Exchange Gazette, Friday, March 9th 1827: "Expired on Saturday the 21st Ultimo, at his Residence in High Street, Benjamin Strutt, Esqr, in whose Death the Town and Borough of Colchester have sustained a Loss, not easily to be Repaired. As Chamberlain to the Borough in particular he has rendered it many important Services,† and as an Antiquarian (or Antiquary) he has deeply investegated its History and Rights. Whilst his extraordinary Talents, and Multifarious Information, commanded the respect of the Rich, his Benevolence secured him the Love of the poor, of whom his principles invariably Rendered him the general Adviser and Steadfast Friend.

† Note. Particularly so in restoreing back 16 Shillings to the Free Men, which a certain Rascally Lawyer purloined from them, they only receiveing for Years before only about 8d or 10d from the free Land.

"Had he Coveted Wealth, or power, the Avenues to both lay open before him, for the Grasp of his Mind was capacious enough to become one of the most influential public Characters in the Country; but the artificial Distinctions of Society presented no Attractions to One already Independant in his own Resources. Utility was the sole Aim of his Occupations, and whenever a Duty was to be performed to a Friend, or a Service rendered to his Townsmen, or to Society at large, then he stood forward, foremost and fearlessly, but for the Employment of his more Leisure Hours he was contented to be Indebted Solely to his Love of Science, and the Fine Arts as cultivated by him in the uninterrupted Seclusion of his Study.

"A long and painful Illness brought into more immediate view those precious Attributes of the Mind, which his total Indifference to the praise of Men would otherwise have led him to conceal rather than display, even from his nearest and dearest Ties, and it is now the Consolation of his Sorrowing Family to reflect, that his Acute Sufferings were borne with Implicit Resignation to the Will of God, in whose Mercies he profest to place a Trust, not to be shaken by meerly Bodily Trials, the Sincerity of which profession was abundantly proved by the firmness with which he contemplated the inevitable Nature of his Disease (Aneurism) & the Tranquility with which he rendered back his Existence to him, from whom he at all times with pious Gratitude acknowledged it to have been received.† As his Life drew near to a Close, he frequently said 'I am ready to go, when my Master calls me.' Gently was he called at last, unrepinely was that Call obeyed. Peace to his Soul, Honour to his Memory."

The above Elogium was from the Heart & Pen of Elizabeth Strutt, my Brothers Wife, and doth Credit to her as a Wife, Mother, Authoress and Friend.

My much lamented Father Died at the Age of 72, and lays Buried in a Vault in St. James Church, Colchester (By the Side of his Mother).

"No Epitaph need make the Just Man fam'd
For he is prais'd when he is only Nam'd."

3. Samuel Strutt. Lived sometime at Deptford & was in the Victualing office till unjustly discarded. He Married the Daughter of M^{r} Saunders, an eminent Baker of London. Her Maiden Name was Susan Saunders, and an excellent Wife she was. She died of a Cancer. He died some time before her, of a decayed Liver. He was formerly an Officer in the Prince of Wales's Company (now King George 4th), and went to the Expedition to Holland, & the Island of Walchereen, in the Capacity of a Commissary in the Army, in the latter place he caught the Complaint so prevalent there; the effects of which, he probably found, hastened his last Moments. She had no Family by him.
4. Joseph Strutt. Deceased was in the Sea Service. Died a Single Man.

† As a proof my Father looked beyond ordinary means, he observed to a Sister of mine "It is not because I have Money in my Pocket, we have a good Dinner here to Day."

Strutt of Dedham

My Great Grandfather (sic), Brother to my Grandfather, John Strutt, married a person of the name of Wiltshire, a very Handsome Lady, who lived to be near a Hundred Years of Age. My Aunt, Sarah Charlotte Strutt, remembers her carrying her about the Room.

1751, Died Leonard Barnard Esqr. near Chinkford in Essex.

Died in 1753, Lord Barnard in Berkeley Street, Picadilly.

My Relations on the Polletts Side.

My Grandfather was Hugh Barnard Pollett, of High Street, Colchester, Essex, Surgeon. Deceased Sep^{r} 3, 1772. Barnard Hugh Pollett was Buried 3^{d} Sep^{tr} 1772, in St. Runwald Church, Colchester. He married Ann Allein, who Succeeded her Husband in the Buisiness, in paternshp with Mary Rachel Pollett, one of her Daughters. She had Issue by M^{r} Pollett, Three Daughters (I think there was another Ann Tolady Pollett) namely:

1. [Blank in orig.] Pollett, Deceased. Married to John Prentice, Esq^{r} of Ipswich in Suffolk. She Died without Issue. Lays Buried in Ipswich. She Died suddenly in the Night, oweing it is thought to takeing a wrong Medicine given her by mistake. Early in the Morning my Uncle found her a Corpse. "In the midst of Life we are in Death." M^{r} Prentice now resides in the City of Bath. [Note in pencil: Deceased anno 1830 at Bath.]
2. Mary Rachel Pollett, Deceased. She Married to Captain Robert Crane, who Served in the First American War Under Marquis Cornwallis. Both Husband & Wife now Deceased. Buried at Peters, High Street, Colchester. Left a Son, Robert Prentice Crane.
3. Caroline Pollett. Married to Benjamin Strutt of Colchester, had Issue (see the Pedigree).

My Grandmother, M^{rs} Pollett had Three Sisters, but if now liveing I know not, namely:

1. M^{rs} Elizabeth Allan. Concerning M^{rs} Allan, my Aunt knows some secret History, but I cannot make her divulge it to me. E. Strutt.
2. Lady Peshall, the Wife of Sir John Peshall. Sir John Peshall, Baronet, so created by King James 1st May 22nd 1611.
3. Ann Pollett, a Maiden Lady, who suddenly disappeared Years ago.

My Uncle & Aunt Crane's Son, Robert Prentice Crane, went to Buenos Ayres, as Chaplain to a Regiment. Married a Daughter of – Gee, Esq^{r}, by whom I think she has a Family.

My Aunt Crane had another Son, who Died in Infancy, named Alfred Crane. And my Uncle Crane's Brother, John Crane, had a Daughter who married a person of the Name of Yeates. A most agreeable & worthy Lady, now Deceased. I received a Letter from her, in answer to one I sent, which shewed at once her Piety & Goodsense. The particulars of her Dissolution hath not Reached Mine Ears.

Colchester, Barrack Street, 1828. Edw^{d}. P. Strutt.

M^{rs} Jiggon, Relict of W^{m} Jiggon, Esq^{r}, of Kelvedon, Sister of my Uncle Crane, Deceased. No Family left.

M^{rs} Fanny Crane, A Maiden Lady, formerly of Kelvedon, Deceased. Sister also to my Uncle Crane (see note over leaf).
